

Analytical Thinking & Application

Analytical thinking is a vital skill that is required for personnel at all levels and functions in an organization.

This workshop will help participants to develop the skills to analyze situations in business and take the most appropriate decisions. This is a highly interactive workshop and covers several tools and techniques to analyze data and situations.

The topics covered are :

- Creative Vs Analytical thinking
- Influencing factors
- The power of questions
- Probing and Listening
- Basic Statistics
- AnalyticalTools