

Black Belt Training

The Lean Six Sigma Black Belt training help develop leaders to handle complex projects across functions and business verticals

Candidates will learn to lead change initiatives and work on projects across functional and business verticals

The Candidates will be able to apply the 5 step DMAIC methodology to solve problems and accomplish project goals .

Candidates will learn to use lean tools such as 5S, Visual Management, JIT concepts, Kaizen, Value Stream Mapping and Kanban. Also to conduct hypothesis tests and use of comparative methods tools like t-tests , Anova, Multiple Regression, DOE, EVOP , Response Surface Methods

BB certification requires successful completion of the program, passing the exam and successful implementation of a lean six sigma project.