

LSS for HR Professionals

A one day workshop on Lean Six Sigma exclusively for HR professionals helps to demystify Lean Six Sigma.

The candidates will get a clear understanding of how HR professionals can apply the tools in their work and can also appreciate why HR should encourage the implementation of Lean Six Sigma process in the organization.

This program is recommended for HR Managers, HR Executives, OD&L Managers, Team Leaders and all people involved in people management.

The methodology adopted includes interactive presentations, group exercises and simulation games.
