

Lean Practitioner Workshop

The lean practitioner's workshop is a comprehensive lean program that will prepare participants diagnose, design and execute lean transformation.

Candidates will learn about the 8 steps of the Diagnose and Design Phase - Demand Analysis, Product Segmentation, Current State VSM. Capacity Analysis, Inventory Analysis, Supplier Analysis, Future VSM and Implementation Plan

The workshop is highly interactive and participative and it is an essential starting point for a lean transformation initiative in the organization.

The candidates will learn and become familiar with the use of lean tools and techniques