

Foot Print Optimization

Advisory services for Foot Print Optimization to rationalize resources begins with Demand and Capacity Analysis of the facility. Products will be grouped into families by segmenting of process steps

New layouts will be prepared using the segmented data

Constraints in OEE and other road blocks will be taken up as improvement projects using Kaizen or other initiatives

The project will lead to setting up a lean factory with improved capability and enhanced capacity. It will also generate more free space to add new projects